

Announcer

This is the person who announces the names of the swimmers before each heat. They also communicate anything else that might need to be announced throughout the meet. The announcer helps to keep the pace of the meet moving.